London, May 25.
On Saturday arrived the Mails due from Holland.

Naples, April 25.

A Courier is arrived from Manfredonia, with an Account of a great Diſorder that has happened there, occaſioned by the coming thither of 300 German Soldiers by Sea. The Magiſtrates ſent to tell them, that coming from infected Countries they ſhould not Land, but perform Quarantain on board their Ships. The Germans contemned this Order and began to Land, which cauſed ſuch an Alarm among the Inhabitants, that many ran to Arms to oppoſe their coming aſhore. Theſe not ſucceeding, retired, and the Gates of the Town were ſhut; but the Germans entered, took the Syndick and Elect and uſed them very hardly. This Inſult joyned to the general Fear of the Plague, had ſo irritated the Inhabitants, that they had taken Arms to defend themſelves, and things were in this Confuſion when the Expreſs came away. Tis ſaid Count Borromeo has ſent Orders to thoſe Troops to perform Quarantain in the Iſlands of Tremiti, which is doubted, becauſe he has commanded two Companies of Germans to march that Way, and to ſtay there in Garriſon, to keep the People in Awe.

From the Paris Gazette, dated May 27.

Madrid, May 8. An extraordinary Courier arrived Yeſterday from Turin, with Letters from the Duke and Dutcheſs of Savoy, and from the Prince of Piemont, for their Majeſties and for the Prince of Spain, congratulating them on the Concluſion of the Peace. The Advices from Barcelona import only, that they expected there from the Coaſts of Italy the Engliſh Squadron and a great Number of Tranſport-Ships, to take on Board the German Troops; but that they could not arrive before the 15th of this Month, with an Engliſh Commiſſary-General who is to aſſiſt at the Evacuation of Catalonia. Count Staremberg had revoked all the Commiſſions and Paſſports which other Generals or Leaders of the Volunteers had granted, commanding that no Regard ſhould be had to any other than thoſe he himſelf ſhould give out. He had ſent for Collonel Nebot and the Governours of Urgel and de la Mentagne, and put them under Confinement in Barcelona, for having plundred and ravaged the Country, without Diſtinction of Friends or Enemies.

From the Paris Gazette, dated May 27.

Paris, May 27. The 22d, the Peace was proclaimed with the uſual Ceremonies in the principal Parts of this City: The Chaſtelet and the City Magiſtrates repairing thither, accompanied by the King at Arms and the Heralds, with the City Trumpets, Kettle-Drums, and Drums. The 25th Te Deum was ſung on the ſame Occaſion in the Cathedral, the Cardinal de Noailles Archbiſhop of Paris officiating. The Chancellor of France at the Head of the Councils, the Parliament, the Chamber of Accounts, the Court of Aydes, the Court of the Mint, the Univerſity, the City Magiſtrates, aſſiſted; and at Night there was a great Firework before the Town-Houſe, and Bonfires in all the Streets, with other Demonſtrations of Joy.

PARIS.

The King's Letter to the Cardinal de Noailles, Archbiſhop of Paris, ordering him to cauſe Te Deum to be ſung in the Cathedral of this City, in Thankſgiving for Peace.

Couſin,

THE Prayers which without ceaſing I have offered up to God with all my People, imploring him to vouchſafe to put a ſtop to ſo long and bloody a War, have at length been heard. As it belongs to him alone to give Peace to Men, and as he holds in his Hand the Hearts of Kings, he has diſpoſed the greateſt Part of the Princes and States with whom I was at War to re-eſtabliſh with me a ſincere and perfect good Intelligence, and the Treaties of Peace were ſigned at Utrecht the 11th and 12th of laſt Month, by my Ambaſſadors Plenipotentiaries with thoſe of the Queen of Great-Britain, the King of Portugal, the King of Pruſſia, the Duke of Savoy, and the States-General of the United Provinces. 'Tis fit that all my Subjects ſhould joyn with me in giving Thanks to God, who moved with the Evils with which

Europe

Europe was so long afflicted, has at length been pleased to put an End to them, by a Peace as desired as necessary. Wherefore I write you this Letter, to tell you that my Intention is you cause Te Deum to be sung in the Metropolitan Church of my good City of Paris, &c. Written at Marly the 21st of May 1713. Signed, LEWIS, and lower Phelypeaux.

Hague, May 30. 'To Day came Advice 'of the Arrival of Prince Eugene of Savoy 'at Muhlberg on the Upper Rhine near 'Philipsbourg, and that the Army to be 'commanded by that Prince is already '50000 Men strong, and increases daily by 'the Troops of the Princes and States of 'the Empire which repair thither from all 'Parts. The Generals Count Tilly and 'Dopf who have been with the Marshal de 'Montesquiou, to concert with him the re-'ciprocal Exchange of Places, are come 'back; and have so settled that Affair, that 'on the 29th of May Namur was to be eva-'cuated against Bethune and St. Venant, the '1st of June Furnes is to be evacuated against 'Aire, and on the 4th Ypres and Charleroy 'against Lisle. As for Newport, 'tis to re-'ceive an English Garrison; but Dender-'monde and the Castle of Ghent will be 'garrisoned with Dutch Troops. The Mar-'shal de Montesquiou would not fix a Day 'for the Evacuating of Luxembourg, saying 'he had no Order for it, and that his Court 'had forgot he believed to send him Orders 'about it. We cannot learn that any Time 'is yet fixed for the Demolishing of Dunkirk.
